The Notices

BENEFICE CHANTRY BOOK – during February we update the Chantry Book, that is, the book containing the names of our departed family members whose names are read out at the Sunday Parish Mass, published on this Newsletter and in The Magazine. Please check the Chantry Book at the back of Church and confirm your previous entries with your initials and add any additional names on the relevant date using capital letters. Please note, we can only pray for the departed by name with the express permission of their family.
